SUBJECT: BONNIE LOUISE KELLOUGH (6)
aka
BONNIE HETHCOAT

Sir:

Pursuant to instructions of Captain W. P. Gannaway and attempt was made to interview the SUBJECT relevant to the trial of JACK RUBY. SUBJECT'S address was given as 3500 Armstrong st., telephone number, LA 1-3883. This location was determined to be the home of a Mrs. MARGARET M. PEAK, telephone number LA 1-3853. Mrs. Peak stated that the SUBJECT had lived in a room she was renting from Mrs. Peak just prior to the time JACK RUBY was arrested and jailed. That the SUBJECT was employed at the Carousel Club. That she was unable to find further employment after the club was closed and had left her home and moved in with some other girl in the Oak Cliff section. Mrs. Peak stated that late in December of 1963, she had inquired about the SUBJECT and was told that several friends had taken up a collection and had obtained enough money for the SUBJECT to purchase a bus ticket to Los Angeles, California and to live on for a short period of time. Mrs. Peak stated that she had made this inquiry of a person she had talked to at the Carousel Club.

Respectfully submitted,
